Giuseppe Zanotti officially wowed us today when we opened our latest shipment from the designer. We are in love with this lace work of art. It is feminine, elegant and sexy all bundled into one. This 5 inch slingback is a silver metallic leather adorned with intricate gold lace. The peek-a-boo platform has a stacked natural wooden heel. Not only is this shoe beautiful, it is versatile and can easily be taken from day to evening. It would pair fabulously with skinny dark jeans and a simple silk blouse in a variety of hues but would also be a perfect compliment to a cocktail dress.
